Minnesota Beef Industry Service Award Nomination Form

Deadline November 17th, 2023

Purpose

To recognize an individual, business or organization that has demonstrated support to grow Minnesota's cattle industry or community.

Background

The beef industry in Minnesota depends on the support of agricultural businesses and organizations for the advancement of our industry. The Minnesota Beef Industry Service Award serves as an avenue for MSCA to recognize and thank these groups for their efforts in our state. Nominations are submitted to the Executive Committee which then selects the award recipient. The announcement of the selection is made public at the annual Best of Beef Banquet during the MSCA convention in December.

Nominees must have demonstrated leadership and support to the cattle industry and have made a positive and lasting contribution to Minnesota's cattle community.

Eligibility Criteria

1. Be a resident or have operation of business in the of the state of Minnesota
2. Be actively involved in the cattle industry
3. Be nominated by a fellow MSCA member or affiliated local cattlemen's association.

Mail completed nomination form & any supporting documents to:
